Giving Options ~ Making a Future Gift to VNHCH

Here are just a few ways that you might make a planned gift to Visiting Nurse Home Care & Hospice. The term “Planned Giving” describes the ways in which individuals make charitable gifts through a formal agreement such as a will or a trust. There are many vehicles for a planned gift, each providing a distinctive way to shape a substantial gift.

You may specify how you would like your planned gift to be used; such as a named endowment fund supporting Crossings, Hospice or operations. Ask your financial advisor for more details or call VNHCH. We will work with your advisor to assure the perfect gift for you, your family and VNHCH.

Charitable Bequest:

The donor makes a provision within his or her Last Will & Testament. This is perhaps the simplest way to make a planned gift and the vehicle most commonly used. While preparing a will is not always easy and will take much thought and discussion, it is essential. Everyone needs a will. Consider it your final love letter to family, friends and charities that you so graciously support in life. One of the most gratifying reasons for having a will is the peace of mind that comes with it, knowing that you have provided for the needs of the ones you love and your favorite charities. Gifts made in your will might include cash, securities, real estate, life insurance or a percentage of your estate.

Charitable Remainder Trust:

The donor makes a gift of assets establishing a trust. There are many different types of trusts providing fixed or variable income for one or two lives or a fixed term not to exceed 20 years, income tax advantages and ultimately a charitable gift. Win. Win. Win.

IRA Gift:

Persons over 70½ may direct a gift of their IRA up to $100,000 directly to VNHCH. Transfers are tax free and may satisfy minimum distributions, saving income tax.

Retirement Gift:

Making VNHCH the beneficiary of a remainder of your retirement account has tremendous tax benefits and will support the work of VNHCH for years to come.

Life Insurance:

The donor names VNHCH as the owner and beneficiary of a new or no longer needed existing policy.

Remembering the past. Securing the future. Consider an estate gift!
